INTERNATIONAL KARATE SEMINAR
ENTRONCAMENTO

CHIEF TECHNICAL DIRECTOR - HDKI

Sensei Scott Langley

7th DAN HDKI

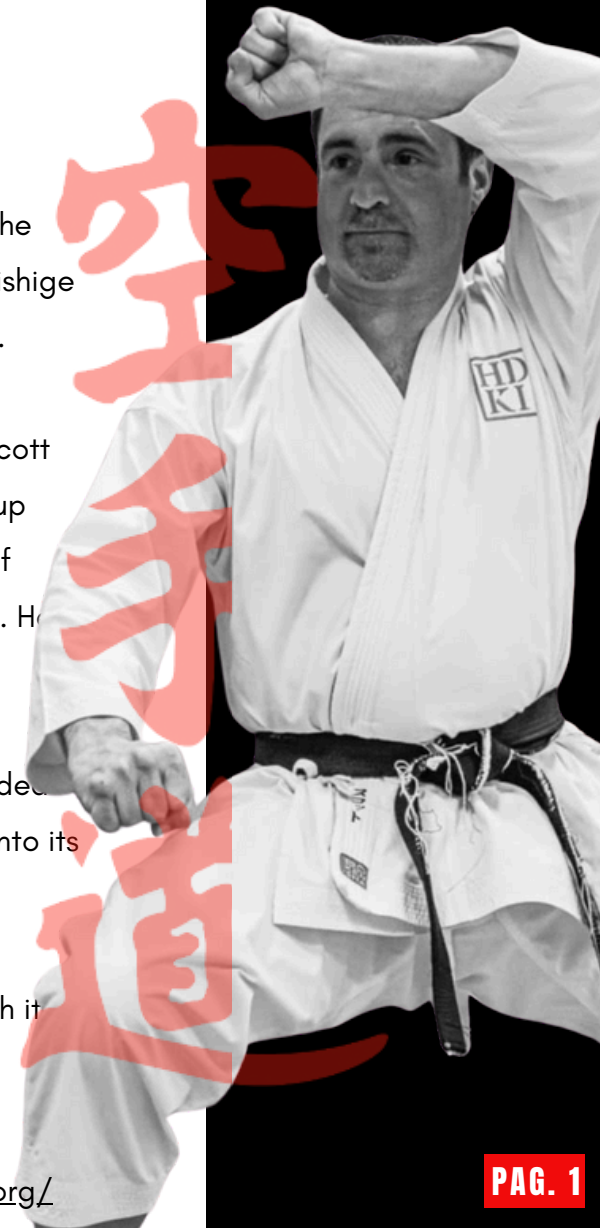

Scott Langley is the founder and Chief Technical Director of HDKI. He began training in the late 1970s, first in Jiu Jitsu and then in Shotokan Karate, and trained extensively with Kato Sadishige in the United Kingdom. Scott lived and trained in Tokyo full-time for five years, starting in 1997.

In 2002, he graduated from the first class of instructors at the newly formed JKS. That year, Scott moved to Dublin, Ireland, where he founded JKS GB & Ireland. Over the next decade, the group grew to become one of the largest karate associations in Europe. Following the publication of Karate Stupid, his memoir about his time in Japan, Scott forged a new path, joining the WTKO. He established WTKO GB & Ireland, which grew rapidly, reaching over 100 dojos by early 2017.

In March of that year, Scott decided to create his own group, and thus HDKI was born. Founded on principles of community, fairness and mutual respect, HDKI incorporated safeguards into its structure to ensure a sustainable organisation. Since its inception, HDKI has grown steadily, spanning 30 countries.

Scott will continue as Chief Technical Director until 2027, guiding the HDKI community through its first ten years of history.
